

The Easter Bunny

One Easter, Alex was spending her Easter holiday with her best friend Harper.

Harper lived on a farm in the middle of nowhere.

One day Alex and Harper went out to the barn and rode around on their horses Misty and Mick. Once they got on top of the hill they got off the horses and sat down and talked.

Suddenly out of nowhere a black house and a horrible beast appeared. It was an Easter bunny the Easter bunny had very long ears, sharp teeth, big feet and a big fluffy tail and it did not look happy, not at all. So the girls jumped back onto the horses and raced to the barn shed and the Easter bunny went after them. The girls ran into the barn shed and hid behind the hay. "What was that?" asked Alex breathing heavily. "I don't know." said Harper. The barn was very dark so they could not see anything. . . . . The doors were closed then the doors peeked open. Then a big shadow was standing next to the door. "Shhh" whispered Alex. The shadow got bigger and bigger. The girls rushed to the other side of the hay as the shadow disappeared. Then out of nowhere the shadow was standing right in front of them. "Oh no, now what!" screamed Alex. The girl's teeth were shattering. Then the rabbit's head came off. "Surprise! Happy Easter" yelled Harper's parents Nick and Cat. "Oh you scared us" Harper said huffing and puffing from all of that hiding. 'let go inside and have some dinner' said Cat happily. 'Please don't ever do that again!' said Harper still scared. 'Ok' then they never saw that Easter bunny suit ever again.
